INFORMATION LETTER

Dear colleagues!

Zhangir Khan West Kazakhstan Agrarian and Technical University, in cooperation with the Akimat of West Kazakhstan Region and the Public Association “Bäige Federation of West Kazakhstan Region” will hold the International Scientific and Practical Conference “Taiburyl” on October 17, 2026. The conference will focus on the current state of Kazakh horse breeds and will be dedicated to the 50th anniversary of the Kushum horse breed.

The conference is organized within the framework of program-targeted funding of the Ministry of Agriculture of the Republic of Kazakhstan under the scientific and technical program BR22887106 “Application of molecular genetic methods for horse genetic resources management optimization and efficient horse breeding innovative technologies development”.

All interested participants are invited to attend the conference, including researchers, horse owners, faculty members, doctoral students, master’s students, and undergraduate students.

The conference will include the following sections:

- Breeding, selection and genetics of farm animals;
- Veterinary medicine and biosafety in animal husbandry.

Working languages: Kazakh, Russian, English

Participation format: online and offline

Participants are requested to submit their articles and application forms by email to salimova.dinara98@gmail.com between September 15 and October 10, 2026.

Contact person: Dinara Salimova, Tel.: +7 702 790 6518

Articles must have a minimum originality rate of 70%, as verified using the Antiplagiarism system.

Note: Articles containing numerous grammatical, spelling, or stylistic errors, including those resulting from poor-quality machine translation, as well as articles that do not comply with the stated requirements, will not be accepted for publication.

Only original articles that fall within the journal’s scientific scope and have not been previously published elsewhere will be accepted.

When preparing manuscripts, authors are advised to follow GOST 7.1–2003, “Bibliographic Record. Bibliographic Description. General Requirements and Rules,” adopted by the Interstate Council for Standardization, Metrology and Certification (Protocol No. 12 of July 2, 2003).

Submission Requirements

Each author must submit the following as separate files:

- 1. Article materials (one Word file), including: author(s)’ full names; article title; abstracts and keywords in Kazakh, Russian, and English; references in the original language, in English, and in transliteration; figures and tables with captions.

2. Author information, including: full name; academic degree and academic title; position or profession; specialty and code; place of employment (full institution name, city, and address); country (for foreign authors); e-mail address; telephone number.

Article Requirements:

- Length: 5–8 pages
- Font: Times New Roman, size 11
- Margins: 2.5 cm on all sides
- Paragraph indent: 1.0 cm
- Line spacing: 1.0.

Sequence of Elements for the Publication Formatting of Materials:

1. UDC and State Rubricator of Scientific and Technical Information (GRNTI) index (in accordance with the indexing guidelines available in scientific libraries or freely accessible on the Internet: <https://grnti.ru>);

2. Author Information

This section should include the authors' surnames and initials, academic degrees and titles, the full name of the institution where the research was conducted, city and country, as well as the e-mail addresses of all authors, with the corresponding author clearly identified;

The article title should be presented in uppercase letters, in bold, 11 pt Times New Roman font, and centered. The title should also be provided in English.

The 16-digit ORCID ID of each author must be indicated;

3. Abstract

The abstract should contain 150–300 words and be provided in the language of the article and in English. An additional abstract in Kazakh or Russian should be included after the "References" section;

4. Keywords

Keywords should be presented in italics. The number of keywords should range from 5 to 10;

5. Main text of the article.

The scientific article should include: Introduction, Materials and methods, Results, Discussion, Conclusion, Funding information (if available), Acknowledgments, References (at least 12 sources). Each original article (except for social sciences and humanities) must ensure the reproducibility of research results. The methodology should be described, including the origin of equipment and materials, statistical data processing methods, and other means of ensuring reproducibility.

Acknowledgments. This section should list grants or other types of financial support for the research (as well as their sources, if necessary). It should also include thanks to specialists or institutions that assisted in organizing and conducting the research. Do not acknowledge individuals who participated in the review and acceptance of manuscripts, i.e., reviewers, editors, or members of the journal's editorial board.

References should be listed in the order they are cited in the text and formatted in square brackets, for example: [1]. The first reference cited in the text should be numbered [1], the second [2], and so on in sequence. When citing a result from a book, indicate its number in the reference list and (after a comma) the page number where the result is published, for example: [7, p. 157]. When citing results from multiple sources, reference numbers should be separated by a semicolon, for example: [7, p. 157; 8].

The references should be up to date, with at least 70% published within the last 5–7 years, except for fundamental works.

Recent international literature from the Web of Science and/or Scopus databases should account for at least 30% of the total number of references over the past 10 years.

All references listed must be cited in the text, and all cited sources must be included in the reference list.

Transliteration of Russian text into Latin script for the “References” section can be done free of charge using the following websites: <http://www.translit.ru/> <http://translit-online.ru>

These tools do not transliterate specific Kazakh letters. After transliteration, Kazakh text must be manually corrected according to the following rules:

ә → a, ғ → g, ң → n, ө → o, ұ → u, ы → u, к → k, і → i

Figures and Tables

Figures and other graphic materials must be embedded in the manuscript and prepared using graphic-editing software. Figure captions must explain all symbols, abbreviations, and designations used. Tables must be numbered consecutively and provided with titles. The maximum number of tables is 5, and the maximum number of figures is 5.
